Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

There is demarcation of responsibilities between the board, board committees and management.

There is clarity in the authority of the board, its committees and individual directors.

Practice 2.1

The board has a board charter which is periodically reviewed and published on the company's website.

The board charter clearly identifies–

- the respective roles and responsibilities of the board, board committees, individual directors and management; and
- issues and decisions reserved for the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board retains full and effective control of the Group. The Board has the primary responsibility for guiding and monitoring the business and affairs of the Group including compliance with the Company's corporate governance objectives. In giving effect to this Board Charter, each Director will at all times act honestly, fairly and diligently in all respects in accordance with the law applicable to the Company. Each Director will at all times act in the interests of shareholders of the Company and of the Company as a whole, and will have regard to the interests of employees and customers of the Group and the community and environment in which the Group operates. The salient features of the Board Charter had been uploaded on the Company's website at www.gfmservices.com.my. The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to various Board Committees namely the Audit and Risk Management Committee ("ARMC"), the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") whose functions are within their respective terms of reference approved by the Board. The said terms of reference are periodically reviewed by the Board, as and when necessary and the Board appoints the Chairman and members of each committees. These Committees assist the Board in making informed decisions through in-depth discussions on issues in discharge of the respective committees' terms of reference and responsibilities. The Chairmen of the various committees will report to the Board the outcome of the Committee meetings which will be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting. The ultimate responsibility for decision making, however, lies with the Board.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges and emphasises the importance for all Directors and employees of GFM Services Group to embrace the highest standards of corporate governance practices and ethical standards. In this respect, the Board has formalised a Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct. These codes are aimed to emphasise the Company's commitment to ethics and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct had been uploaded on the Company's website at www.gfmservices.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.1

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The principle emphasises the importance of right board composition in bringing value to the board deliberation and transparency of policies and procedures in selection and evaluation of Board members. The Board currently has seven (7) members, consisting of one (1) Independent Non-Executive Chairman, three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors, and three (3) Non-Independent Non-Executive Directors. The Company complies with the criteria of Bursa Securities' ACE LR ensuring that at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board of Directors, whichever is the higher, are independent directors. The profiles of each of the Directors are presented on pages 32 to 38 of the 2019 Annual Report. The current composition of the Board is well balanced with the presence of Independent Non-Executive Directors of the necessary calibre to carry sufficient weight in the Board's decision-making process. All Independent Non-Executive Directors are independent of management duties and they do not have any family relationship with any of the other Board members which could interfere with their exercise of independent judgement during the decision-making process of the Board or the ability to act in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3- Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Board has adopted the policy that the tenure of an Independent Director shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. However, an Independent Director may continue to serve the Board upon reaching the 9-year limit subject to the Independent Director's re-designation as a Non-Independent Non-Executive Director. In the event the Board intends to retain the Director as Independent after the latter has served a cumulative term of nine (9) years, the Board must justify the decision and seek shareholders' approval at general meeting. In justifying the decision, the NRC is entrusted to assess the candidate's suitability to continue as an Independent Non-Executive Director based on the criteria on independence and the candidate's performance.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC will recommend to the Board on suitable candidates for appointment as Board members, member of Board Committees and Executive Director of the Company based on the following evaluation criteria:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• skills, knowledge, expertise and experience;</li> <li>• professionalism;</li> <li>• time commitment to effectively discharge his role as a Director;</li> <li>• contribution and performance;</li> <li>• character, integrity and competence;</li> <li>• boardroom diversity including gender diversity; and</li> <li>• in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the NRC shall also evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as are expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors.</li> </ul> The NRC will arrange for the induction of any new Directors appointed to the Board to enable them to have a full understanding of the nature of the business, current issues within the Company and corporate strategies as well as the structure and management of the Company.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board currently does not have a formal policy on its boardroom or gender diversity. The evaluation and selection criteria of a Director are very much dependent on the effective blend of knowledge, skills, competencies, experiences and time commitment of the new Board member. Nonetheless, the Board is supportive of gender diversity in the Boardroom composition as recommended by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance and will endeavour to consider suitable and qualified female candidates for appointment to the Board.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Board alongside the NRC is continually seeking suitable candidacy to address gender diversity based on merit and relevant experience and skill-set that would support and enhance value creation to the business.
Timeframe	:	2 – 3 years

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is confident that its current size and composition is sufficient and effective in discharging the Board's responsibilities and in meeting the Group's current needs and requirements. The profile of the Board members are set out in the 2019 Annual Report on pages 32 to 38. The Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance endorses a formal procedure for appointments to the Board based on the recommendation of a nominating committee. As such the Board has established a NRC who is responsible for:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• recruitment, retention, training and basically developing the best available Directors suitable for the Company;</li> <li>• management of the Board's renewal and succession planning effectively; and</li> <li>• reviewing and recommending to the Board, the remuneration frameworks for Directors and assists the Company in ensuring that the remuneration of the Directors reflects the responsibility and commitment undertaken by the Board membership.</li> </ul> When there are changes in the regulatory requirements and retirement of Directors, the Board would through the NRC review the composition of the Board members in order to ensure that the current composition of its Board functions competently.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board, through the NRC, undertakes the process to assess the effectiveness and performances of each individual Director annually. The assessment is based on each Director's contribution, roles and duties, personal attributes, attendance record and training activities attended.

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC will review and assess the size of Board, required mix of skills, experience, performance and contribution of Directors; effectiveness of the Board as a whole; independence of Independent Directors and training courses required by the Directors, and is satisfied with the current composition and performance of the Board. The NRC will also consider the performance and contribution of the Director who stand for re-election at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting to determine whether they are eligible for re-election. The NRC will recommend the re-election of Director to the Board for approval. All the retiring Director will abstain from deliberations and decisions on their own eligibility to stand for re-election at the Board Meeting. With the current composition, the NRC opines that all the Board members have the necessary knowledge, experience, requisite range of skills and competence to enable them to discharge their duties and responsibilities effectively. All Directors on the Board have many years of experience on the Boards of other companies and/or also as professionals in their respective fields of expertise.

Practice 6.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In general, the component parts of the remuneration for Executive Directors are structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance of the Executive Directors. The remuneration of the Executive Director includes salaries and other emoluments, bonus and benefits in kind. The level of remuneration for the Independent Non-Executive Directors, reflects the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken by the particular Independent Non-Executive concerned. Currently the Non-Executive Directors are paid Director's fees and attendance allowance for Board/general meetings they attended. The Company's remuneration policy for Directors is formulated to attract and retain competent individuals. The remuneration is structured to link experience, expertise and level of responsibility undertaken by the Directors. The NRC is entrusted with the responsibilities to make recommendations on the remuneration package for the Executive Directors to the Board. It is the ultimate responsibility of the entire Board to approve the remuneration of these Directors. Non-Executive Directors' remuneration will be decided by the Board as a whole with the Director concerned abstaining from deliberation and voting on decisions in respect of his individual remuneration.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 9.2

The board should disclose the features of its risk management and internal control framework, and the adequacy and effectiveness of this framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Risk Management regarded by the Board to be an integral part of the system of internal control and is a good management practice that strengthens the business planning processes. The Group has an ongoing and systematic risk management process to identify, evaluate and manage the significant risks and to ensure that appropriate risk treatments are in place to mitigate those risks affecting the achievement of the Group's business objectives. This ongoing process is undertaken at all the major subsidiaries of the Group, as well as collectively at the Group level. The Board regularly reviews internal control issues identified by internal auditors, management and evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control system on an on-going basis. The Group's key elements of internal control are as follows:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Clearly defined delegation of responsibilities to management and operating units, including authorisation levels for key aspects of the business.</li> <li>2. Clearly documented internal policies, guidelines, procedures and manual, which are updated from time to time.</li> <li>3. Regular meetings are held at operational and management levels to identify and resolve business, financial, operational and management issues and address weakness and improve efficiency.</li> <li>4. Engage and appoint solicitors, financial advisors and other competent professional as may be required in respect of any corporate exercise undertaken by the Group.</li> <li>5. Financial results are reviewed on a quarterly basis by the Board and ARMC.</li> <li>6. Informal Board and management meetings at operational level are held during the financial year to assess performance and controls.</li> </ol>
