Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company’s desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company’s long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company’s website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In general, the component parts of the remuneration for Executive Directors are structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance of the Executive Directors. The remuneration of the Executive Directors includes salaries and other emoluments, bonus and benefits in kind. The level of remuneration for the Independent Non-Executive Directors reflects the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken by the particular Independent Non-Executive Director concerned. Currently the Non-Executive Directors are paid with Director’s fees and attendance allowance for Board/general meetings they attended. The Company’s remuneration policy for Directors is formulated to attract and retain competent individuals. The remuneration is structured to link experience, expertise and level of responsibility undertaken by the Directors. The NRC is entrusted with the responsibilities to make recommendations on the remuneration package for the Executive Directors to the Board. It is the ultimate responsibility of the entire Board to approve the remuneration of these Directors. Non-Executive Directors’ remuneration will be decided by the Board as a whole with the Director concerned abstaining from deliberation and voting on decisions in respect of his individual remuneration.

Practice 10.2

The board should disclose the features of its risk management and internal control framework, and the adequacy and effectiveness of this framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Risk Management is regarded by the Board to be an integral part of the system of internal control and is a good management practice that strengthens the business planning processes. The Group has an ongoing and systematic risk management process to identify, evaluate and manage the significant risks and to ensure that appropriate risk treatments are in place to mitigate those risks affecting the achievement of the Group's business objectives. This ongoing process is undertaken at all the major subsidiaries of the Group, as well as collectively at the Group level. The Board regularly reviews internal control issues identified by internal auditors, management and evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems. The Group's key elements of internal control are as follows:- <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Clearly defined delegation of responsibilities to management and operating units, including authorisation levels for key aspects of the business.2. Clearly documented internal policies, guidelines, procedures and manual, which are updated from time to time.3. Regular meetings are held at operational and management to identify and resolve business, financial, operational and management issues and address weakness and improve efficiency.4. Engagement of solicitors, financial advisors and relevant professional services as may be required in respect of any corporate exercise undertaken by the Group.5. Financial results are reviewed on a quarterly basis by the Board and ARMC.6. Intended Outcome

Shareholders are able to participate, engage the board and senior management effectively and make informed voting decisions at General Meetings.

Practice 13.5

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.
Application :	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice :	All Directors and Senior Management had attended the fully virtual AGM held on 23 June 2022 to engage directly with shareholders and be accountable for their stewardship of the Company. An Administrative Guide was released together with the Notice of AGM, whereby the shareholders are entitled to appoint proxy/proxies to participate and vote instead of shareholders themselves by submitting the Form of Proxy to the Registered Office of the Company not later than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of poll at the meeting or adjourned meeting. The Company has appointed HMC Corporate Services Sdn. Bhd. ("HMC") as Poll Administrator to conduct the poll by way of online voting and to provide a virtual meeting facility for the 9th AGM held on 23 June 2022. The Board was satisfied with the virtual meeting facilities provided by HMC for the previous AGM held in year 2022, therefore the Board had decided to engage the same service provider for coming AGM. Prior to the AGM, the shareholders are allowed to submit any questions online by scanning the QR Code or click onto the link provided in the Administrative Guide. During the AGM, the shareholders are encouraged to submit typed questions in real time via the Q&A Box on the Virtual Meeting Facilities. Any questions can be submitted at any time until the announcement of the closure of Q&A session. The Directors and Management will address the questions submitted prior or during the meeting accordingly.
